

Promenade

Junior and Youth Choirs

Informal concert

Hall of Bell Farm School,
7.15pm Monday 19th October 2009

Programme:

Complete History of Western Music (abridged) - arr. Snyder

Feed the Birds - Mary Poppins - Sherman and Sherman

Solo: Elena Vigliengi

Love's Philosophy - Alexander L'Estrange

Hello young lovers - The King and I - Rodgers and Hammerstein

Solo: Helen Lawrence

Liebeslieder Waltzes (extracts) - Brahms

Give your answer, maiden dearest

A pretty little bird rose up

A house by the Danube

O had I Jubal's lyre - Joshua - Handel

Solo: Naomi Vidis-Humphries

O Sleep, why dost thou leave me - Semele - Handel

Solo: Laura Moore

Once upon a time - The Reluctant Dragon - John Rutter (taster of Christmas Concert)

Swing low, sweet chariot - trad. arr. Gwyn Arch

Solo: Sarah Flannagan

What is this feeling - Wicked - Stephen Schwartz

Solo: Abigail and Emma Clarke

Disney medley - arr. Mac Huff

Pop - Musical Pie - Jonathan Willcocks

Directed by Christopher Goldsack

Assistant and Accompanist - Pamela Phillips

The Promenade Junior and Youth Choirs aim to provide high quality music making for young singers who want to experience the joy of working with other equally motivated children. They rehearse at Ashley School, Walton-on-Thames on Monday evenings. The choirs' Christmas concert will be at St Peter's Church, Hersham on December 6th at 3.30. Those interested in joining should visit the Promenade Website:

Web: www.promenade.org.uk

the RCSherriffTrust advancing the arts in Elmbridge

